After Receiving Death Wound Man Injures Detective.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Newport News, Va., March 17.—Frank Paul, a negro chicken thief, was shot and killed by Detective-Sergeant Pearson, of the local police force, during a ficree hand-to-hand combat between them to-day about a mile north of this city Pearson went to the place to arrest the negro, and the latter, according to evidence offered at the coroner's inquest, said he would die before he would go to jail. He tried to run, but the officer captured him. After receiving his death wound through the left lung, the negro threw the officer
over a grindstone, fracturing the bone
in Pearson's left arm.

Pearson was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Chief Mitchell, charging him with murder, and he was balled for his appearance before line. and there will be confette and favors for the suests and all sorts of lovely secondarios. Neshit—Farrell.

Neshit—Farrell.

The marriage of Mrs. A. V. Farrell and John L. Neshit of Franklin, Pa. was celebrated very quietly at the firamon, the ceremony taking place at high moon on Monday. The Rev. Frank T. McFaden officiated, and Professor J. Lamont Galbraith rendered the wedding musle. The drawing-room was prettily decorated in palms and flowers, and an improvised altar of palms, potted plants and burning tapers was arranged at one end of the room. The bride wore a smart tailored suit with a hat to match, and her flowers were orchids and liles of the valley. She was attended by Mrs. N. P. Norris as dame of honor.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Neshit is a daughter of Mrs. Markin, Pa., where they will make their home. Mrs. Vincent, and the groom is a prominent attorney of Franklin.

Returned From Washington.

Mrs. Charles Pickett Stokes, who has been on an extended visit to her sister in Washington, where she has been much entertained, returned to Richmond last week. Mrs. Stokes has as her guests at the Chesterfield her son, Charles P. Stokes, of Philadelphila. No Longer Chairman of Norfolk City Democratic Committee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk Va., March 17.—Dr. Powhatan S. Schenck has resigned as chairman of the Norfolk City Democratic Executive Committee. The status of the Democratic committee itself is somewhat doubtful in the minds of many politicians. The committee was elected in 1911 for two years, before the city was redistricted. There has been no election since. A new committee should have been elected inst fall.

Should a Democratic primary be held in the forthcoming campaign it is doubtful if the Citizens' party would participate in it. Democrats are trying to arrive at a way to eliminate the negro vote in the forthcoming election. This vote is almost certain to go to the Citizens' party. If a primary is held it would bind Democrats to support the nominees of that primary or force them beyond the pale of party lines. son. Charles P. Stokes, of Philadelphia.

The Dansant on Saturday.

The first of a series of "thes-dansants" under the auspices of Lee Chapter. United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel on Saturday after noon from 4 to 7 o'clock. It will be a fashionable and charming event, and the list of patrons includes some of the leading women of the city. Tables may be reserved through Mrs. Henry C. Cooper, of 2401 Grove Avenue. Decorations will be in spring flowers, and an orchestra will play for the dancing. Mrs. A. J. Montague, who is president of Lee Chapter, is putting forth every effort for the success of the entertainment, and several silver loving cups will be awarded as prizes for the best Suffrage Meeting.

DEMOCRATS MEET

Irvine Favorite With Many, While There Is Strong Sentiment for Buchanan.

ment for Buchanan.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., March 17.—About 200 delegates and visitors arrived from Southwest Virginia counties this afternoon to attend the Ninth District Democratic Convention to-morrow, when a candidate to represent the district in Congress will be aominated. An advance guard of such large numbers indicates an attendance of probably not less than $60 to-morrow. The Democrats have not in many years shown such general interest. This is attributed in part to the fact that the Democrats are in control in the nation, and in part to a belief that the times are propitious for a Democratic victory in the Ninth. The hotol lobbies are thronged to-night, and there is much speculation as to the probable nominee. R. Tate Irvine is a favorite with many, but there is menifest a strong sentiment in behalf of Senator B. P. Buchanan. Most of the delegates are uninstructed.

Governor Stuart is expected to arrive at 9:39 o'clock to-morrow morning. The convention will meet at noon.

Disappearance of Seven-Year-Old Warren McCarrick Creates Great Mystery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Philadelphia, March 17.—Not since the kidnapping eight years ago of little Freddie Muth, the son of wealthy parents, hus a case caused such a sensation and created so much mystery as the disappearance of Warren McCarrick, the seven-year-old son of a city employe, who has been missing since hast Thursday, and for whom a country-wide search was started yesterday.

Searching every vacant building barn, outhouse, vacant lot and the oper fields along the Schuvlicill River, forty day joined the hunt for the boy.

day joined the hunt for the boy.

was made with the sanction of Captain of Detectives Cameron, who believed their aid to be expecially welcome.

At acon the boys made a bail at Eighteenth and Bainbridge Streets, where a large vaccant lot overgrown with brush, was thoroughly searched without result. This afterneon the patrol extended along the banks of the Schuyikill River.

In the belief that the McCarrick lad may be imprisoned in a freight car every car sidefracked in all the yards of the city was scarched. No trace of the ind was found.

It is believed possible that the boy wandered from his home to the Baltimore and Ohlo tracks which lise the cast side of the river, and the theory is advanced that he might have crawled into a box car and possibly been locked in.

Among others who hastened to over

Among others who hastened to offer aid and symmetry to the Marian aid and sympathy to the McCarricks to-day was Charles Muth, whose son, Freddie, was althapped eight years ago and held prisoner in a vacant house for six days. John Keane, the perpetrator of this outrage, is serving a long term in prison.
